PRESIDENTS MESSAGE

The holidays are not quite over, we have Valentine's Day coming up shortly. Don't forget our Valentine's exchange (more about it is in this newsletter). We have had many members sick or having surgery. I hope all are better and healing without complications. Do stay healthy. I want to give a big "Thank You" to Cheryl for stepping up at our Paint In last month and spear heading the announcements and all. If you are on Facebook or belong to another painting club or organization, please post and let them know about our upcoming seminar with Linda Sharp. Hope to see all of you at our February meeting.

THE JANUARY PAINT-IN WAS GREAT!

We had a great Paint-In to start the New Year! Bonnie does a great job getting us excited to pick our brushes back up after the holidays. This month, she led us in creating the Candy Cane Gnome by Janice Miller. Most painters chose a fabric pillow case, some chose aprons, a sweatshirt and a variety of wood pieces. It was wonderful to have 17 painters this month, including 4 guests! We were fueled by chocolates and two types of cake. The class was very enjoyable and we are grateful for our large painting space.

Tidbits Bonnie shared:

neon pastel colors exist

new color - white wash

cool white has a blue tint, thin to a glaze and paint over snowmen, etc.

DecoArt has beginner brushes for $5

Amazon has paint cases, holds 24

Champagne Gold doesn't change the original color it is mixed with, very sheer.

Black Plum and Paynes Grey will shade any red nicely

Cute prize Bonnie brought.

Message from Jody Glaser, Chairperson

I want to thank everyone for making our 2023 fund raising so successful. We sold approximately 350 ornaments, 130 other (other is everything except ornaments). What we need for this year's sales, in addition to our starting inventory, is over 300 ornaments, fall items 15, Halloween 16 and approximately 70 other Christmas.

I need everyone's help to rebuild our inventory. I will be bringing in lots of patterns with surfaces and surfaces without patterns to peak your creativity monthly. These items will be available for check out at lunch time. Please return the pattern with your completed item.

Remember, sign or initial your piece ,make sure the backs are finished, don't date your piece and make sure some type of hanging (ribbon or sawtooth hanger) is attached.
